ORDER

On March 25, 2013, Complainant Leticia Montoya ("Montoya") filed a complaint against her former employer, Respondent Meyer Eyecare, for an alleged violation of the Cook County Human Rights Ordinance. The Cook County Commission on Human Rights ("Commission") has not yet made an evidence determination with respect to this matter, but on February 13, 2014, the Commission received a fully executed Withdrawal Request Form ("Request") from Montoya.

Pursuant to the Commission's Procedural Rules:

> A Complainant may request to withdraw a Complaint or any part thereof at any time prior to an Evidence Determination by the Commission. A Complainant's request to withdraw a Complaint shall be in writing, shall be signed by the Complainant or his/her attorney of record, and shall be verified. If the request is knowingly and voluntarily made, the Commission shall approve the request and enter an order dismissing the Complaint.

CCHR Pro. R. 480.160.

The Request, which was signed by Montoya and notarized, states that "[a] settlement has been reached." Additionally, in the Request, Montoya attests that she is making her request to withdraw voluntarily and without pressure from any organization or individual.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission hereby grants Montoya's request to withdraw her complaint and orders that complaint 2013E011 be DISMISSED pursuant to a VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL.
