Regardless of invoice date, all defective custom configured computers will be accepted for repair only. All other defective computers will be accepted for repair or replacement only at manufacturer's discretion.

All factory sealed non-defective returns for credit or replacement, are subject to restocking fees based on manufacturer's return policies. Manufacturer policies will determine if a product is accepted for return. Please note, most manufacturers as of January 1, 2004 are NOT approving non defective products for return.
