ORDER

On February 2, 2015 Complainant Denise Collins (“Collins”) filed a complaint against Respondent Dennis Kolios (“Kolios”) for allegedly discriminating against her in a residential real estate transaction based on her source of income in violation of the Cook County Human Rights Ordinance. The Cook County Commission on Human Rights (“Commission”) opened an investigation and has not yet made a determination of whether there is sufficient evidence to support Collins’ claim, but on March 23, 2015, the Commission received a fully executed Withdrawal Request Form (“Request”) from Collins.

Pursuant to the Commission’s Procedural Rules:

A complainant may request to withdraw a complaint or any part thereof at any time. A Complainant’s request to withdraw a complaint shall be in writing and shall be signed by the Complainant or his/her attorney of record. Under such circumstances, the request may be presumed to be knowingly and voluntarily made, and the Commission may approve the request and enter an order dismissing the complaint.

CCHR Pro. R. 420.160.

The Request, which was signed by Collins, states that a “settlement” was reached. Additionally, in the Request, Collins attests that she is making her request to withdraw voluntarily and without pressure from any organization or individual.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission hereby grants Collins’ request to withdraw her complaint and orders that Complaint No. 2015H001 be DISMISSED pursuant to a VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL.
