ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On May 28, 2015, Complainant Andrew Oliver (“Oliver”) filed a complaint against his former employer, Respondent Reconciling Ministries Network (“RMN”), alleging, inter alia, retaliatory discharge in violation of the Cook County Human Rights Ordinance. The Cook County Commission on Human Rights (“Commission”) opened an investigation into Oliver’s allegations, but has not yet made a determination of whether there is sufficient evidence to support Oliver’s claim. Such a determination, however, will no longer be necessary to the resolution of this matter because the Commission received a fully executed Withdrawal Request Form (“Request”) from Oliver’s attorney, Kathleen Sedey (“Sedey”), on September 16, 2015.

Pursuant to the Commission’s Procedural Rules:

A complainant may request to withdraw a complaint or any part thereof at any time. A Complainant’s request to withdraw a complaint shall be in writing and shall be signed by the Complainant or his/her attorney of record. Under such circumstances, the request may be presumed to be knowingly and voluntarily made, and the Commission may approve the request and enter an order dismissing the complaint.

CCHR Pro. R. 420.160.

The Request, which was signed by Sedey, states that “the parties have reached a resolution.” Additionally, in the Request, Sedey attests that she is making the request to withdraw on Oliver’s behalf voluntarily and without pressure from any organization or individual.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission hereby grants the request to withdraw Oliver’s complaint and orders that Complaint No. 2015E009 be DISMISSED pursuant to a VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL.
