ORDER

On February 6, 2012, Complainant Roman Torres ("Torres") filed a complaint against Respondent John H. Stroger, Jr. Hospital alleged a violation of the Cook County Human Rights Ordinance for age-based employment discrimination. The Cook County Commission on Human Rights ("Commission") has not yet made an evidence determination with respect to this matter, but on October 8, 2013, the Commission received a fully executed Withdrawal Request Form ("Request") from Torres.

Pursuant to the Commission's Procedural Rules:

A Complainant may request to withdraw a Complaint or any part thereof at any time prior to an Evidence Determination by the Commission. A Complainant's request to withdraw a Complaint shall be in writing, shall be signed by the Complainant or his/her attorney of record, and shall be verified. If the request is knowingly and voluntarily made, the Commission shall approve the request and enter an order dismissing the Complaint.

CCHR Pro. R. 480.160.

The Request, which was signed by Torres and notarized, states that the parties entered into a settlement agreement. Additionally, in the Request, Torres attests that he is making his request to withdraw voluntarily and without pressure from any organization or individual.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission hereby grants Torres's request to withdraw his complaint and orders that complaint 2012E007 be DISMISSED pursuant to a VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL.
