Eliza Bikvan, Esq.
Assistant General Counsel
Cook County Sheriff's Office
50 W Washington, Room 704
Chicago, Illinois 60602

Dear Ms. Bikvan:

Over the past several years, our company has significantly expanded and refined its mission, products, and programs, so it was time to leave the old identity behind.

With a refined vision to strengthen connections, increase access and transparency, and reduce recidivism, we are now ViaPath Technologies. ViaPath is the technology leader that is helping people connect with purpose and empowering them to realize the potential of tomorrow.

We are still offering industry-leading communications and technology solutions for facilities, incarcerated individuals, and their friends and family. But as a robust, refined team, we're even more poised to help our partners, like you, deliver and develop resources that forge a path through enrichment, education, and new opportunities. The path forward begins with reentry solutions developed to help individuals, families, and underserved communities create better opportunities – while incarcerated and both at and after release.

As we considered this rebranding of the company and solidifying under one name, we wanted to ensure that no contracts were affected and without the need for amendment. GTL is still the company of record for all contracts related to the Cook County contract. This is simply a rebranding and a DBA, "Doing Business As" change.

There have been no ownership changes, legal entity changes, structural changes, etc. We will continue providing services to you and fully fulfill the obligations under our current and any future contracts.

Of course, should you have any questions, feel free to contact us directly and learn more at our new website located at www.viapath.com.

Sincerely,

Matthew Caesar – Chief Strategy Officer

FAMILIAL RELATIONSHIP DISCLOSURE PROVISION

Nepotism Disclosure Requirement:

Doing a significant amount of business with the County requires that you disclose to the Board of Ethics the existence of any familial relationships with any County employee or any person holding elective office in the State of Illinois, the County, or in any municipality within the County. The Ethics Ordinance defines a significant amount of business for the purpose of this disclosure requirement as more than $25,000 in aggregate County leases, contracts, purchases or sales in any calendar year.

If you are unsure of whether the business you do with the County or a County agency will cross this threshold, err on the side of caution by completing the attached familial disclosure form because, among other potential penalties, any person found guilty of failing to make a required disclosure or knowingly filing a false, misleading, or incomplete disclosure will be prohibited from doing any business with the County for a period of three years. The required disclosure should be filed with the Board of Ethics by January 1 of each calendar year in which you are doing business with the County and again with each bid/proposal/quotation to do business with Cook County. The Board of Ethics may assess a late filing fee of $100 per day after an initial 30-day grace period.

The person that is doing business with the County must disclose his or her familial relationships. If the person on the County lease or contract or purchasing from or selling to the County is a business entity, then the business entity must disclose the familial relationships of the individuals who are and, during the year prior to doing business with the County, were:

- its board of directors,
- its officers,
- its employees or independent contractors responsible for the general administration of the entity,
- its agents authorized to execute documents on behalf of the entity, and
- its employees who directly engage or engaged in doing work with the County on behalf of the entity.

Do not hesitate to contact the Board of Ethics at (312) 603-4304 for assistance in determining the scope of any required familial relationship disclosure.

Additional Definitions:

"Familial relationship" means a person who is a spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner of a County employee or State, County or municipal official, or any person who is related to such an employee or official, whether by blood, marriage or adoption, as a:
